Athletic Department

Vision and Core Values

Our vision will be met by utilizing highly qualified coaches, a dedicated support staff and administrative personnel to provide a stimulating holistic student centered environment. Developing multi-disciplinary skills through practice, competition and collaborative team efforts. As a result, CMSV Athletics will provide an athletic program that is a source of pride and is a connective rallying point for the student body, faculty and staff, alumni, local and regional community, future students and diverse educational partners.

Collaborate
• CMSV Athletics will contribute to the advancement of society by cultivating teamwork within our athletic programs, building relationships amongst the athletic community and creating partnerships with other campus entities.

Empathy
• We will promote a high commitment to cooperation in the workplace. We will have the ability to understand another person’s perspective or circumstance whether you agree with this person or not. We will be curious and possess a desire to know and understand others. modeling good behavior starts with the individual. We will listen and be solution based.

Communicate
• We will operate with an open door policy where all ideas are welcome. Our department will be an inclusive safe zone for healthy communication. Coaches will want to hear our student athletes. Administrators will want to hear our coaches. We will meet face to face whenever possible and promote as much positive communication as possible.

Positivity
• We choose to be positive. Positivity is contagious and boosts the happiness, productivity, and creativity of those around us. We will focus on further developing what we have and what we do well. We will have fun, as it is essential to our well-being, the relationships we create and the overall health of the department.

Service
• The Athletic Department is devoted to having all of its members, student-athletes and staff, recognize their individual and collective responsibility to providing service to our College, our community and all neighbors.
